

Call To Action

I received a couple of calls today concerning the flooding going on in the Daytona Beach area. They have received over 10 inches of rain and expect at least another 12" before the rain ends, which is expected tomorrow. Homes have already flooded. Per my local contacts, the water should exit immediately after the rain stops, but the damage is already done.

They are asking for teams to come in this weekend to help with the cleanup.

This is a great chance for all of you who can't make the long haul trips we do and your chance to be a Weekend Warrior For Christ!!

The area is being toured today and I will get more info tomorrow. Our plan is to probably head out on Friday evening to be ready to work Saturday and Sunday. We'll come back either Sunday or Monday evening as the Lord leads. We may have some room in our vehicle and can take a second one if necessary.

Please let me know if you are interested in helping and I will keep all of you posted.
