

Peru Container Released!!

Praise God the container for the people in Peru has been released!! They will be going through the container and splitting it between the new Calvary Chapel church plant we have in Pisco and Operation Blessings ministry in Lima.

Our part of the container should be ready to ship to Pisco by early next week once it has all been gone through and divided.

Due to the length of storage our fees are a little higher than anticipated, so pray that the Lord will work all of that out!

Thank you all so much for your prayers. As soon as we get some pictures, I will make them available to you.

Thanks!

Proclaiming the Lord in all we do,
In season and out of season,

God Bless,
